

Non-Discrimination Policy
Greater Rochester Teen Book Festival, Inc.

The Teen Book Festival promotes an atmosphere of inclusion. The Greater Rochester Teen Book Festival, Inc. shall not discriminate against any person in any aspect of its services and business transactions on the basis of age, race, color, national origin, creed, disability, marital status, sex or gender expression, or sexual orientation.

In addition, the Greater Rochester Teen Book Festival, Inc. will be an equal opportunity employer, making a good faith effort to employ or utilize the services of minority group persons and females. The Greater Rochester Teen Book Festival, Inc. shall include language in any advertising or solicitation for vendors reflecting this non-discrimination policy.

Adopted by the Board of Directors
June 14, 2016